1 Pleas in the circuit court of the United States for the northern district of Illinois, held at the United States court-room in the city of Chicago, in the district aforesaid, before the Hon. Thomas Drummond, district judge of said district, and in the absence pro tempore of the Hon. David Davis, one of the justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, sole judge of said circuit court, on Friday, the third day of July, in the adjourned May term of said court, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of our independence the ninety-second year.

WILLIAM H. BRADLEY, Clerk.

JOHN M. HERNDON } vs. HENRY LYTTLE. } In ejectment.

NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS, set:

Be it remembered that on the sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, came John M. Herndon, plaintiff, by Messrs. Wead and Jack, his attorneys, and filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the United States for the 2 northern district of Illinois, at Chicago, in said district, his declaration in ejectment against Henry Lyttle, defendant, with a notice and bond for costs thereto attached; which said declaration, notice, and bond are, respectively, in the words and figures following, to wit:

Declaration.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Northern District of Illinois:

United States circuit court.—July term, A. D. 1867.

Henry Lyttle, who is a citizen of the State of Illinois, summoned to answer unto John M. Herndon, who is a citizen of the State of Virginia, of a plea of trespass and ejectment.

For that, whereas heretofore, to wit, on the first day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty seven, at and within the county of Iroquois, in the northern district and State of Illinois, the said plaintiff was possessed as of his own demesne in fee simple of a certain tract of land, situate at and within the said county, district, and State, and known as the south half of the northwest quarter of section number twenty-six (26), in township number twenty-seven (27) north, of range number thirteen (13) west, in the county of Iro-
3 quois, State of Illinois, which land exceeds in value five hundred dollars; and the said plaintiff being then and there so possessed of said premises, he, the said defendant, thereafterwards, to wit, on the day and year aforesaid, entered into the said described premises, and, from the time last aforesaid, he unlawfully withheld and do now unlawfully withhold from the said plaintiff the possession of the said premises, to the damage of the said plaintiff the sum of one hundred dollars; and therefore he bring suit, &c.

By WEAD & JACK,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

To Mr. :

You are hereby notified that the declaration, with a copy of which you are now herewith served, and to which this notice is subjoined, will be filed in the circuit court of the United States for the northern district of Illinois, on the fifth day of the July term thereof, A. D. 1867; and that upon filing the same, a rule will be entered requiring you to appear and plead to the said declaration within twenty days after the entry of said rule; and that if you neglect so to appear and plead, a judgment by default will be entered against you, and the plaintiff will recover possession of the premises specified in said declaration.

Dated this 26th day of June, A. D. 1867.

4 WEAD & JACK,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Northern District of Illinois:

United States circuit court.—July term, A. D. 1867.

JOHN M. HERNDON
vs.
HENRY LYTTLE. } In ejectment.

I enter myself security for costs in this cause, and promise to pay all costs which may accrue to the opposite party in this action, or to any of the officers of this court; and in default of payment by the plaintiff of any costs ordered or adjudged to be paid by him, I hereby agree and stipulate that execution may issue against my property for any costs taxed against him.

Dated this 5th day of July, A. D. 1867.

H. M. WEAD. [SEAL.]

JUNE 28, 1867.—Gave copy to Isaac Underhill, who agreed to enter appearance of defendant & file plea of general issue.

H. M. WEAD.

(Endorsed:) Filed this 6th day of July, A. D. 1867.
WM. H. BRADLEY, Clerk.

5 On this day, to wit, the 13th day of July, A. D. 1867, came said defendant, by Geo. F. Harding, esq., his attorney, and filed in said clerk's office his plea in said entitled cause; which said plea is in the words and figures following, to wit:

Plea.

United States circuit court, nor. dist. of Ill.

JOHN M. HERNDON
v.
HENRY LYTTLE. }

And the said defendant comes & defends the wrong & injury, when, &c., and says that he is not guilty of unlawfully withholding possession of said premises, as charged in said declaration; & of this he puts himself upon the country, &c.

GEO. F. HARDING,
Att'y for Def't.

(Endorsed:) Filed July 13th, 1867.

WM. H. BRADLEY, Clk.

On this day, to wit, the 30th day of May, in the adjourned May term, A. D. 1868, of said court, in the record of the proceedings thereof in said entitled cause is the following entry, to wit:

6 Hearing & verdict.

JOHN M. HERNDON vs HENRY LYTTLE. } Ejectment.

Now come the parties, by their attorneys, and upon issue joined thereupon come a jury of good and lawful men, to wit: John Hoffman, G. H. Fitch, James M. Pratt, Richard Cody, Joshua Thomas, Thomas McKee, A. Beebe, James Mason, William Lunn, Clement Pierce, William Wilcox, and S. H. Gilbert, who were all duly elected, tried, and sworn well and truly to try said issue; and after hearing the evidence and receiving the instructions of the court, the jury returned into court the following verdict, to wit: We, the jury, find the defendant guilty of unlawfully withholding from the possession of the plaintiff the real estate and premises described in the plaintiff's declaration as follows: A certain tract of land situate at and within the county of Iroquois, northern district and State of Illinois, and known as the south half of the northwest quarter of section number twenty-six (26), in township number twenty-seven (27) north, of range number thirteen (13) west, in the county of Iroquois, 7 State of Illinois. We also find the estate established in the plaintiff on the trial to be an estate in fee simple, and assess his damages to the sum of one cent.

And thereupon the defendant, by his attorney, moves the court for a new trial herein.

8 Bill of exceptions.

On the hearing of said cause the following exceptions were taken and were allowed by the court, and are in the words and figures following, to wit:

United States circuit court, northern district of Illinois.

JOHN M. HERNDON vs. HENRY LYTTLE. }

Be it remembered that upon the trial of the above-entitled cause at the above-entitled term in said court, the plaintiff offered in evidence the following instruments in writing, viz:

First. Two patents from the United States government to Robert Hord, dated November 1, 1839; which said patents are in the words and figures following, to wit:

Patent to Hord.

Certificate No. 6,614.

The United States of America to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

9 Whereas Robert Hord, of Caroline County, Virginia, has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a certificate of the register of the land office at Danville, whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said Robert Hord, according to the provisions of the act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the public lands," for the west half of section twenty-six, in township twenty-seven north, of range thirteen west, in the district of lands subject to sale at Danville, Illinois, containing three hundred and twenty acres, according to the official plat of the survey of the said lands returned to the General Land Office by the surveyor general; which said tract has been purchased by the said Robert Hord: Now know ye, that the United States of America, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress in such case made and pro-

10 vided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant, unto the said Robert Hord and to his heirs the said tract above described, to have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances of whatsoever nature thereunto belonging, unto the said Robert Hord and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, Martin Van Buren, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the city of Washington, the first day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, and of the independence of the United States the sixty-fourth.

11 Patent to Hord.

Certificate No. 6,621.

The United States of America to all to whom these presents shall come, greeting:

Whereas Robert Hord, of Caroline County, Virginia, has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a certificate of the register of the land office at Danville, whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said Robert Hord, according to the provisions of the act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the public lands," for the west half of the northeast quarter of section twenty-six, in township twenty-seven north, of range thirteen west, in the district of lands subject to sale at Danville, Illinois, containing eighty acres, according to the official plat of the survey of the said lands returned to the General Land Office by the surveyor general; which said tract has been purchased by the said Robert Hord: Now know ye, that the United States of America,
12 in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress in such case made and provided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant, unto the said Robert Hord and to his heirs, the said tract above described; to have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances of whatsoever nature thereunto belonging, unto the said Robert Hord and to his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, Martin Van Buren, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

H. M. GARLAND,
Recorder of the General Land Office.

13 To the reading of the patent for the west half of sec. 26, 27 N., 13 west, in evidence, the defendant objected, because of an erasure and interlineation, as he claimed, apparent upon the face of the same, by the erasure of the word "six" and the interlineation of the word "seven" therefor in the description of the said premises. But the court overruled the objection of the defendant, and admitted said instrument in evidence, and left it to the jury to determine whether there was any alteration of said patent; to which ruling of the court the defendant then and there in open court excepted.

Second. The plaintiff next offered in evidence a deed from Robert Hord to John M. Herndon, dated February 4, 1842; which said deed is in the words and figures following, to wit:

Deed from Hord to Herndon.

This indenture, made this fourth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, between Robert Hord, late of the county of Caroline, in the State of Virginia, of the first 14 part, and John M. Herndon, of the town of Fredericksburgh, in the State aforesaid, of the second part, witnesseth: That the said Robert Hord for and in consideration of the sum of two thousand dollars, to him in hand paid by the said John M. Herndon, at and before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, hath granted, bargained, & sold, aliened, enfeoffed, and confirmed, and by these presents doth grant, bargain, & sell, alien, enfeoff, and confirm, unto the said John M. Herndon, his heirs and assigns forever, the following tracts or pacels of land, with all and singular the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances thereto belonging, or in any manner appertaining, situate, lying, and being in the county of Iroquois, in the State of Illinois, which were purchased by the said Robert Hord from the United States; that is to say, the west half of section five, in township twenty-four north, of range ten east, and containing three hundred and fifteen acres and $\frac{8}{100}$ of an acre; also the east half of the southeast quarter of section eight, in township twenty-15 four north, of range ten east, and containing eighty acres; also the east half of the northeast quarter of section eight, in township twenty-four north, of range ten east, and containing eighty acres; also the west half of the northwest quarter of section eight, in township twenty-four north, of range ten east, and containing eighty acres; also the west half of the southwest quarter of section eight, in township twenty-four north, of range ten east, and containing eighty acres;

also the southeast quarter of section seven, in township twenty-four north, of range ten east, and containing one hundred and sixty acres; also the north half of the northeast quarter of section eighteen, in township twenty-four north, of range ten east, and containing eighty acres; also the northwest quarter of section twenty-six, in township twenty-seven north, of range thirteen west, and containing one hundred and sixty acres; also the west half of the northeast quarter of section twenty-six, in township twenty-seven north, of range thirteen west, 16 and containing eighty acres; also the north half of the southwest quarter of section twenty-six, in township twenty-seven north, of range thirteen west, and containing eighty acres; to have and to hold the said several tracts or parcels of land, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto the said John M. Herndon, his heirs and assigns forever, to and for his and their only proper use and behoof. And the said Robert Hord, for himself, his heirs, &c., the said several tracts or parcels of land, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto the said John M. Herndon, his heirs, and assigns, against the claims of all persons whomsoever, shall, will, and doth warrant and forever defend by these presents.

In testimony whereof, the said Robert Hord hath hereunto subscribed his name and affixed his seal the day and year in this indenture first written.

Recorded on the first day of September, 1842, in the records of deeds of Iroquois County, Illinois, in Book B, pages 97 & 98.

JOHN HARWOOD, Recorder.

Which deed the court admitted in evidence. To the reading of which in evidence the defendant objected, because the same is not properly proved or acknowledged; because there is no proper evidence of the official character of the justice of the peace taking the same, and none that the acknowledgment was in conformity with the laws of the State where the acknowledgment was taken, and because the acknowledgment is not in conformity with the laws of Illinois, nor of Virginia, at the State of And was not in conformity with the laws of Illinois 21 the time when the acknowledgment purports to have been made; to which admission of said deed the defendant then and there excepted.

This was the plaintiff's case.

The defendant then offered in evidence the following deeds, viz:

Sheriff's deed to Peck.

A deed from the sheriff of Iroquois County to L. M. Peck, dated July 1, 1864; which said deed is in the words and figures following, to wit:

Know all men by these presents, that whereas, at the June term, A. D. 1862, of the county court of Iroquois County, Illinois, a judgment was obtained in said court in favor of the State of Illinois, against the following-described lots, pieces, or parcels of land for the several sums set opposite said tracts respectively, to wit:

The east half of southwest qr., sec. 22, town. 27 N., R. 13 west, for	$4 58
The west half of southwest qr., sec. 27, town. 27 N., R. 13 west, for	$4 58
The east half of southeast qr., sec. 22, town. 27 N., R. 13 west, for	$4 58
The west half of southeast qr., sec. 22, town. 27 N., R. 13 west, for	$4 58
22 The southwest qr. of northeast qr., sec. 26, town. 27 N., R. 13 west, for	$6 06
The south half of northwest qr., sec. 26, town. 27 N., R. 13 west, for	$13 97

Said sums being the whole amount of taxes, interest, and costs assessed upon said lots, pieces, or parcels of land for the year A. D. 1861. And whereas, on the 25th day of June, A. D. 1862, George King, then treasurer and ex officio collector of the county aforesaid, by virtue of a precept or order issued out of the county court aforesaid, dated the sixteenth day of June, A. D. 1862, and directed to the said George King, treasurer and collector as aforesaid, did expose at public sale, at the court-house in the county aforesaid, in conformity with all the requirements of the statutes in such case made and provided, the said lots, tracts, or parcels of land above described, for the satisfaction of the judgment so rendered against them as aforesaid. And whereas, at the time and place aforesaid, E. H. Collins, having offered to pay the 23 aforesaid sums of money, together with the costs of sale, amounting to the sum of forty-one dollars and fifty-nine cents, for the said lots, pieces, or parcels of land hereinbefore described, to wit: For the east half of southwest quarter of section No. 22, in township No. twenty-seven north, of range No. thirteen west, the sum of five dollars and twelve cents; and for the west half of said southwest quarter of said section twenty-two, in the township and range aforesaid, the sum of five dollars and twelve cents; and for the east half of the southeast quarter of said section No. twenty-two, in said township and range, the sum of five dollars and twelve cents; and for the west half of the southwest quarter of said section No. twenty-two, in said township and range, the sum of five dollars and twelve cents; and for the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section No. twenty-six, in said township and range, the sum of six dollars and sixty cents; and for 24 the south half of the northwest quarter of said section No. twenty-six, in said town. and range, the sum of fourteen dollars and fifty-one cents; which was the least quantity of said lots, pieces, or parcels of land bid for; the said lots, pieces, or parcels of land were then and there struck off and sold to the said E. H. Collins for said sums of money; and whereas the said E. H. Collins has duly assigned his certificates of purchase of the land above described unto L. M. Peck; and whereas the said L. M. Peck has made and delivered to me his affidavit of having complied with all the requirements of the statute and constitution of the State of Illinois necessary to entitle him to a deed for the premises so sold to the said E. H. Collins as aforesaid: Now, therefore, I, Harrison O. Henry, sheriff of the county of Iroquois, for and in consideration of the said above-named sum, amounting to forty-one dollars and fifty-nine cents, paid to George King, treasurer and collector as afore-

25 said, by the said E. H. Collins, at the time of said sale; and in the further consideration of the sum of one dollar to me in hand paid by L. M. Peck, the assignee of said E. H. Collins, and by virtue of the statute in such cases made and provided, have granted, bargained, and sold, and by these presents do grant, bargain, and sell, unto the said L. M. Peck, and to his heirs and assigns forever, the premises so sold as aforesaid, situated and being in Iroquois County, Illinois, to wit: The east half of the southwest quarter, and the west half of the southwest quarter, and the east half of the southeast quarter of section No. twenty-two (22), and the west half of the southeast quarter of section No. twenty-two, and the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter, and the south half of the northwest quarter of section No. twenty-six (26); all of the said lands being in township No. twenty-seven (27) north, of range No. thirteen (13) west of second principal meridian, to have and 26 to hold unto him, the said L. M. Peck, his heirs and assigns, forever, subject, however, to all the rights of redemption provided by law.

In witness whereof, I, Harrison O. Henry, sheriff as aforesaid, by virtue of the authority aforesaid, have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this first day of July, A. D. 1864.

H. O. HENRY, [SEAL.]
Sheriff of Iroquois County, Illinois.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, Iroquois County, ss:

I, Thomas Vennum, clerk of the circuit court in and for the said county, in said State, do hereby certify that Harrison O. This indenture, made the twenty-ninth day of April, in the year
33 of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, between Benjamin L. T. Bourland, of the county of Peoria, and State of Illinois, and Julia P., his wife, parties of the first part, and Isaac Underhill, of said county, of the second part, witnesseth: That the said parties of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of nine hundred dollars (900$), lawful money of the United States of America, to them in hand paid by the said party of the second part, at or before the ensealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have remised, released, and quit-claimed, and by these presents, do remise, release, and quit-claim, unto the said party of the second part, and to his heirs and assigns, forever, all those certain tracts or pieces of land situate, lying, and being in the county of Iroquois, and State of Illinois, known and distinguished as follows, to wit: The south half of section twenty-two (22), containing three hundred and twenty acres, more or less; the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 34 twenty-six (26), containing forty acres, more or less; and the south half of the northwest quarter of said section twenty-six (26), containing eighty acres, more or less; all in township twenty-seven north, of range thirteen west of the second principal meridan; together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments, and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues, and profits thereof, and all the estate, right, title, interest, dower, right of dower, property, possession, claim, and demand whatsoever, as well in law as in equity, of the said parties of the first part, of, in, or to the above described premises, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances, to have and to hold all and singular the above mentioned and described premises, together with the appurtenances, unto the said party of the second part, his heirs and assigns, forever.

35 In witness whereof, the said parties of the first part have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

B. L. T. BOURLAND. [SEAL.]
JULIA P. BOURLAND. [SEAL.]

[Stamped with rev. stamps to the value of $1, cancelled.]

STATE OF ILLINOIS, City & County of Peoria, ss:

I, Eliot Callender, a notary public in and for said city, do hereby certify that on this day personally appeared before me Benjamin L. T. Bourland and Julia P. Bourland, his wife, who are personally known to me to, be the same persons described in, and who executed, the foregoing deed of conveyance, and acknowledged that they had executed the same as their free act and deed for the uses and purposes therein expressed; and the said Julia, wife of the said Benjamin L. T. Bourland, on an examination by me, separate and apart from her said husband, after the contents of said deed had been fully made known and explained to her,
36 declared that she had executed the same, and relinquished her dower to the lands and tenements therein mentioned freely and voluntarily, without fear or compulsion of her said husband.

Witness my hand and seal notarial this 29th day of April, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.

P. T. RHODES, Collector.

Stating that the object of offering the same in evidence was to recover the amount of taxes and costs paid upon the land in suit in said case under the terms of the statute enacted by the legislature of the State of Illinois, of February 21st, 1861, in case said deed from said sheriff was questioned as title by said plaintiff, and to defeat the plaintiff by using said deed as title if he refused to pay the same according to said statute. But the court was of opinion that the said defendant had not brought himself within the said statute, and for the reason, among others, 41 that he must first show there was a judgment as the foundation of said tax sale and deed, and so ruled; to which ruling the said defendant then and there excepted.

This was all the evidence.

42 Judgment.

On this day, to wit, the third day of July, in the July term, A. D. 1868, of said court, in the record of the proceedings thereof in said entitled cause is the following entry, to wit:

vs.
HENRY LYTTLE. } Ejectment.

The motion of the defendant, heretofore entered for a new trial of this cause not being urged by him, the same is overruled by the court. It is thereupon considered and adjudged by the court that the said plaintiff do have and recover of the said defendant possession of the said real estate and premises aforesaid described, according to the force, form, and [and] effect of his said recovery, and that he have a writ of possession therefor, and that he also have and recover of the defendant the said sum of one cent, his damages so as aforesaid assessed, together with his costs and charges by him about his suit in this behalf 43 expended, amounting to the sum of thirty-two dollars and ninety-five cents, and that he have execution therefor.

44 Appeal bond.

On the eight day of July, A. D. 1868, came the said defendant in the above-entitled cause, and filed a bond for appeal; which said appeal bond is in the words and figures following, to wit:

Supreme Court of the United States.

vs.
HENRY LYTLE.

Know all men by these presents, that we, James F. Lytle, sued by the name of Henry Lytle, Enoch H. Long, Abel G. Sturdevant, and Isaac Underhill, are held and firmly bound unto the above-named John M. Herndon, his executors, and administrators; to the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves and each of us, and our heirs, executors, and administrators, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals and dated this 3rd day of July, A. D. 1868.

45 Whereas the above-named James F. Lytle, who is sued by the name of Henry Lytle, has prosecuted a writ of error to the Supreme Court of the United States to reverse the judgment rendered in the above-entitled suit by the circuit court of the United States for the northern district of Illinois:

Now, therefore, the condition of this obligation is such, that if the above-named James F. Lytle, who is sued by the name of Henry Lytle, shall prosecute his said writ of error to effect, and answer all damages and costs, and especially to pay the rents and profits of the premises if he shall fail to make good his plea, then this obligation shall be void; otherwise the same shall be and remain in full force and effect.

46 NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS, ss:

I, William H. Bradley, clerk of the circuit court of the United States for said district, do hereby certify the above and foregoing to be a true, correct, and complete transcript of the record of all the proceedings had in said court in said entitled cause, wherein said John M. Herndon is plaintiff, and said Henry Lyttle is defendant, as the same appears of record, remaining in my custody.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said circuit court, at my office in the city of Chicago, in said district, this fifth day of December, A. D. eighteen hundred and sixty-eight, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-third year.

[SEAL.] WM. H. BRADLEY, Clerk.

[5-ct. int. rev. certificate cancelled: W. H. B., Dec'b. 5, 1868.]

47 Circuit court of the United States, northern district of Illinois.

The United States of America to the judge of the circuit court of the United States for the northern district of Illinois, greeting:

Because in the record and proceedings, as also in the rendition of a judgment in a plea which is in the said court before you, between John M. Herndon, plaintiff, and Henry Lyttle, defendant, a manifest error hath happened to the great damage of the said Henry Lyttle, as by his complaint appears; and it being fit that the error, if any there hath been, should be duly corrected, and full and speedy justice done to the party aforesaid in this behalf, you are hereby commanded, if judgment be therein given, that then, under your seal, distinctly and openly, you send the record and proceedings aforesaid, with all things concerning the same, to the Supreme Court of the United States, together with this writ, so that you have the same at Washington on the first Monday of December next, in the said Supreme Court to be then and there 48 held, that the records and proceedings being inspected, the said Supreme Court may cause further to be done therein to correct that error, what of right and according to the law and custom of the United States should be done.

Witness the Hon. Salmon P. Chase, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, this sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and of our independence the ninty-third year.

[SEAL.] WM. H. BRADLEY, Clerk.

(Indorsed:) Circuit court U. S., northern dist. Ill's. John M. Herndon vs. Henry Lyttle. Writ of error.

49 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, ss:

To John M. Herndon, greeting:

You are hereby cited and admonished to be and appear at a Supreme Court of the United States to be holden at Washington on the first Monday, in December next, pursuant to a writ of error filed in the clerk's office of the circuit court of the United States for the 8th circuit and northern district of Illinois, wherein J. F. Lytle is plaintiff, and you are defendant in error, to show cause, if any there be, why the judgment in the said writ of error mentioned should not be corrected, and speedy justice should not be done to the parties in that behalf.

Witness this 14th day of July, A. D. 1868.

THOMAS DRUMMOND.
